ORDINANCE NO. 14, 2026

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 52A, EMPLOYEE MANUAL, OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF LINWOOD AND REPEALING ALL ORDINANCES HERETOFORE ADOPTED, THE PROVISIONS OF WHICH ARE INCONSISTENT HERewith.

BE IT ORDAINED, by the Common Council of the City of Linwood, County of Atlantic and State of New Jersey as follows:

SECTION 1: Chapter 52A Employee Manual, Article V, Section F Family and Medical Leave is hereby amended to read as follows:

The Employer shall provide family and medical leave in accordance with the federal Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA") and the New Jersey Family Leave Act ("NJFLA"). The Employer will comply with requirements of the New Jersey and Federal Family Leave laws. The laws have similar and different provisions that may provide different rights and obligations for the employee and/or the Employer. The employee shall be afforded the most favorable rights if there is a conflict in the rights afforded to the employee under the laws.

FMLA Leave – The FMLA entitles eligible employees with up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave in a defined twelve (12) month period for the following reasons:

- a. the birth of a child and in order to care for such child;
- b. the placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care;
- c. in order to care for the family member of the employee who is suffering from a serious health condition;
- d. for a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of his/her position; or
- e. because of any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that the employee's family member is a military member on active duty or call to covered active duty status (or has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active duty).

In addition, eligible employees may take up to a combined total of twenty-six (26) unpaid workweeks in a single twelve (12) month period to care for a covered military service member with a serious injury or illness.

FMLA Eligibility – To be eligible for FMLA leave, an employee must have: (i) worked for the Employer for at least twelve (12) months; (ii) worked at least 1,250 hours in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding commencement of the leave; and (iii) be employed at a worksite where the employer has at least fifty (50) employees within seventy-five (75) miles. The twelve (12) months the staff member must have been employed need not be consecutive months pursuant to 29 CFR §825.110(b). The minimum 1,250 hours worked shall be determined according to the principles established under the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") for determining compensable hours of work pursuant to 29 CFR §785. Entitlement to FMLA leave taken for the birth of a son or daughter or placement of a son or daughter with the staff member for adoption or foster care shall expire at the end of the twelve (12) month period beginning on the date of such birth or placement.

Pursuant to 29 CFR §825.201(b), married couples both employed by the Employer are limited to a combined total of twelve (12) weeks of leave during the applicable twelve (12) month period if the leave is taken for the birth of a child, or to care for such child after birth; for placement of a child with the staff member for adoption or foster care or in order to care for the child after placement; or to care for the staff member's parent with a serious health condition.

Returning from FMLA Leave – Upon return from FMLA leave, an employee shall be entitled to the position he/she held when the FMLA leave commenced, or to an equivalent position of like seniority, status, employment benefits, pay, and other conditions of employment. If the Employer experiences a reduction in force or layoff and the employee would have lost his/her position had the staff member not been on family leave as a result of the reduction in force or pursuant to the good faith operation of a bona fide layoff and recall system, including a system under any collective bargaining agreement, the employee shall be entitled to reinstatement to the former or an equivalent position in accordance with applicable statutes, codes, and laws.

Certification of Health Care Provider – The Employer expects that requests for FMLA leave for the purposes of the employee's own serious health condition, or to care for a family member with a serious health condition, shall be accompanied by a completed Certification of Health Care Provider (attached). Notwithstanding, following submission of a request for FMLA leave, an employee shall have up to fifteen (15) calendar days to provide the Employer with a completed Certification.

Prior to designating an employee for FMLA leave, he/she shall be required to provide the Employer with the attached FMLA Certification of Health Care Provider form, completed by the employee's and/or employee's family member's health care provider. The information contained in the completed Certification shall guide the Employer in appropriate designation of the employee's leave of absence. The Employer reserves the right to seek additional documentation necessary to initiate/continue an employee's FMLA leave, in accordance with applicable FMLA regulations.

FMLA Entitlement Period – The method to determine the twelve (12) month period in which the twelve (12) weeks of FMLA leave entitlement occurs will be a "rolling" twelve (12) month period measured backward from the date an employee uses any family leave.

Utilization of Paid Leave. Generally, FMLA leave is unpaid. However, depending upon the circumstances, employees may be entitled to receive short-term disability, workers' compensation benefits, paid family leave benefits, or other state-sponsored wage replacement benefits which pay a portion of normal compensation. These benefits will run concurrently with the employee's unpaid leave. An employee who is eligible for these benefits may also choose to use accumulated paid leave during their approved unpaid leave. Employees may not receive more than 100% of salary at any time. An employee will be required to use any available accumulated paid leave concurrently with the employee's FMLA leave, if such leave is unpaid, to the extent permissible by law.

Employment While on FMLA Leave – An employee designated for FMLA leave is prohibited from performing any services on a full-time basis for any person for whom the employee did not provide services immediately prior to commencement of the leave. An employee using FMLA leave may commence part-time employment that shall not exceed half the regularly scheduled hours worked for the Employer. The employee may continue the part-time employment that commenced prior to the FMLA leave at the same number of hours that the staff member was regularly scheduled prior to such leave.

Temporary Disability Insurance Benefits – An employee who is eligible for and receives State Temporary Disability Insurance (“TDI”) benefits during a leave shall be entitled to be restored by the employer to the position held by the employee when the leave commences or to an equivalent position of like seniority, status, employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment.

NJFLA Leave – The NJFLA entitles eligible employees with up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave in a defined twenty-four (24) month period for the following reasons:

- a. the birth of a child and in order to care for such child;
- b. the placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care;
- c. in order to care for the family member of the employee who is suffering from a serious health condition;
- d. In the event of a state of emergency declared by the Governor, or when indicated to be needed by the Commissioner of Health or other public health authority, an epidemic of a communicable disease, a known or suspected exposure to the communicable disease, or efforts to prevent spread of a communicable disease, which:
 - (i) requires in-home care or treatment of a child due to the closure of the school or place of care of the child of the employee, by order of a public official due to the epidemic or other public health emergency;
 - (ii) prompts the issuance by a public health authority of a determination, including by mandatory quarantine, requiring or imposing responsive or prophylactic measures as a result of illness caused by an epidemic of a communicable disease or known or suspected exposure to the communicable disease because the presence in the community of a family member in need of care by the employee, would jeopardize the health of others; or
 - (iii) results in the recommendation of a health care provider or public health authority, that a family member in need of care by the employee voluntarily undergo self-quarantine as a result of suspected exposure to a communicable disease because the presence in the community of that family member in need of care by the employee, would jeopardize the health of others; or

NJFLA Eligibility – To be eligible for NJFLA leave, an employee must have: (i) worked for the Employer for at least three (3) months; and (ii) worked at least 250 hours in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding commencement of the leave. The calculation of the twelve-month period to determine eligibility shall commence with the commencement of the NJFLA leave. NJFLA leave taken for the birth or adoption of a healthy child may commence at any time within a year after the date of the birth or placement for adoption.

The Employer shall grant a family leave under the NJFLA to more than one employee from the same family at the same time, provided such employees are otherwise eligible for the leave. N.J.A.C. 13:14-1.12.

Employment While on NJFLA Leave – An employee designated for NJFLA leave is prohibited from performing any services on a full-time basis for any person for whom the employee did not provide services immediately prior to commencement of the leave. An employee on NJFLA leave may commence part-time employment that shall not exceed half the regularly scheduled hours worked for the Employer. The employee may continue the part-time employment that commenced prior to the NJFLA leave at the same number of hours that the staff member was regularly scheduled prior to such leave.

NJFLA Entitlement Period – The method to determine the twenty-four (24) month period in which the twelve (12) weeks of NJFLA leave entitlement occurs will be a “rolling” twenty-four (24) month period measured backward from the date an employee uses any leave.

Intermittent and/or Reduced Schedule Leave – Requests for intermittent and/or reduced schedule leave under both the FMLA and the NJFLA shall be reviewed by the Employer on a case-by-case basis and in accordance with the federal and State laws and regulations promulgated thereto.

Relationship to Other Laws – If the employee is eligible for leave for reasons provided under both the FMLA and NJFLA, then the leave time taken shall be concurrent and be applied to both laws. In the event the reason for the family leave is recognized under one law and not the other law, the employee is eligible for each law’s leave entitlements within one twelve (12) month period. For example, an employee may use his/her FMLA leave for a twelve (12) week family leave for their own pregnancy, which is considered a “serious health condition” under FMLA, and upon conclusion of the twelve (12) weeks of FMLA leave, the employee would be eligible for a twelve (12) week NJFLA leave to care for their newborn or any other reasons pursuant to the NJFLA.

During any period of designated FMLA/NJFLA leave, the Employer shall continue an employee’s group health benefits in a manner consistent with that to which the employee received immediately preceding commencement of the FMLA/NJFLA leave. The employee is responsible to make all group health benefits contributions during his/her leave period, in accordance with Chapter 78, P.L. 2011, and any applicable collective negotiations agreement. If an employee does not return to work after his/her FMLA/NJFLA leave expires, the Employer is entitled to recover health insurance costs paid while the employee was on FMLA/NJFLA leave.

Following exhaustion and/or termination of the FMLA/NJFLA leave period, the Employer may continue an employee’s group health benefits, at the employee’s request. In the event that the employee determines to continue his/her group health benefits following a period of designated FMLA/NJFLA leave, he/she shall be solely responsible for the full premium amount due.

During a period of unpaid leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition or a newborn or adopted child or child placed into foster care with the employee, the employee may be eligible for up to twelve (12) weeks of Family Leave Insurance (“FLI”) payments through the State in a twelve (12) month period. FLI is a monetary benefit paid by the State and not a separate leave entitlement, and will thus run concurrently with FMLA and/or FLA leaves.

The employee may be required to or may choose to use accrued paid leave, concurrently with some or all of his/her NJFLA leave. If the employee applies and is eligible for FLI benefits during his/her NJFLA leave, the employee will not be required to use accrued paid leave instead. The employee will not be eligible to accrue seniority or benefits, including vacation and holidays, during any period of NJFLA leave.

An employee who receives Family Leave Insurance (“FLI”) benefits during a leave shall be entitled to be restored by the employer to the position held by the employee when the leave commences or to an equivalent position of like seniority, status, employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment.

SECTION 2: All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistencies.

SECTION 3: Should any sentence, clause, phrase or provision of this ordinance be declared unconstitutional or invalid by a Court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this ordinance.

SECTION 4: This ordinance shall take effect upon its final passage, publication and adoption in the manner prescribed by law.

Re: Report of Bids
Linwood Bike Path Expansion
Contract No. 66
City of Linwood, Atlantic County
PA No. 7502.20

Dear Council President Ford & Council Members:

The City of Linwood received sealed bids for Contract No. 66: "Linwood Bike Path Expansion" on Thursday, October 8, 2026 at 10:00 a.m. A total of eleven (11) contractors picked up bid documents during the bidding period, and six (6) contractors submitted bids for the project. The bids are tabulated below in order from the lowest to the highest for the total bid:

Bidder Name	Total Bid Amount
Arawak Paving Co., Inc.	$ 638,900.00
Landberg Construction LLC	$ 713,969.67
Paving Plus LLC	$ 728,577.65
South State, Inc.	$ 751,356.15
Think Pavers Hardscaping LLC	$ 841,648.00
Command Company, Inc.	$ 858,508.00

All of the submitted bids have been checked for administrative completeness and mathematical accuracy. The contractors who picked up bid documents during the bidding period, but did not submit bids for the project, were Earle Construction, Silagy Contracting, Charles Marandino LLC, R.E. Pierson Construction Co., and Capela Construction. The Engineer's Estimate for the bid was $703,266.40. The lowest bid for the project submitted by Arawak Paving Co. is approximately 9% less than the Engineer's Estimate for the bid.

Based on an analysis of the bids received, the Engineer's Estimate, and total project costs; the bid submitted by Arawak Paving Co. is the lowest responsive bid and appears favorable to the City. Subject to the appropriation of City funds, we recommend awarding the Contract in the amount of $638,900.00 to Arawak Paving Co., Inc. of Hammonton, NJ.

If you should have any questions or require additional information, please feel free to call.

Very truly yours,
